

Dr. Priscilla Eppinger, Executive Director, AB Historical Society, Will Speak at Senior Adult Retreat

April 24-25, 2019

Dr. Priscilla Eppinger began her service as Executive Director of the American Baptist Historical Society in August, 2017, inspired by the Society's mission to advance Baptist identity, promote historical literacy, and thereby advance spiritual and social transformation. One of her priorities as curator of the largest Baptist archives is to ensure the inclusion of marginalized voices in the historical record.

Dr. Eppinger earned a Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies from Northwestern University and Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, a certificate in gender studies from Northwestern University, an M.Div. from Andover Newton Theological School, and a B.A. from Agnes Scott College.

Prior to taking up leadership of the American Baptist Historical Society, Dr. Eppinger was professor of religion at Graceland University (Lamoni, IA) and Community of Christ Seminary (Independence, MO).

A third-generation clergywoman —granddaughter of Rev. Ted and Gertrude Eppinger, and M.L. and Elaine Casbeer, and daughter of Rev. Dr. Paul and Sybil Eppinger — Dr. Eppinger is American Baptist “by birth and by choice.” She was ordained to Christian ministry in 1994 by First Baptist Church of Plymouth, MA.

Her earlier ministry includes service as an educational missionary at the invitation of the Western Congo Baptist Convention, as grassroots network coordinator in the American Baptist Office of Governmental Relations (Washington, DC), and in pastoral positions at the Primera Iglesia Bautista Hispana de Jamaica Plain (Boston, MA), First Baptist Church of Plymouth (MA), and North Shore Baptist Church in Chicago (IL).
